Top Watercolor Artists to Exhibit at Johns Creek Arts Center

Opening Reception: Saturday January 28 from 6-8pm

Exquisite landscapes, inspiring figurative work, glowing still lifes and vivid abstracts will captivate visitors this winter at the Johns Creek Arts Center in Johns Creek, Georgia. This is the first Georgia Watercolor Society Signature Members' Exhibition, and will be held from January 28 to February 24, 2012, showcasing 50 recent works by GWS Signature members. Signature members are those artists in the Georgia Watercolor Society who have earned this prestigious status through acceptance and awards in a number of juried shows. The Georgia Watercolor Society was founded in 1975 and now boasts approximately 500 members.

Johns Creek Arts Center has been called North Fulton County's best kept secret and has evolved over 15 years into a premier arts education center. It inspires artistic development for youth and adults by embracing community and corporate relationships that stimulate creative growth and opportunity. The center provides affordable quality cultural arts education to the residents in the vicinity of North Fulton County including, but not exclusive to, Johns Creek, Alpharetta, Roswell, Duluth and Suwanee.

Everyone is encouraged to attend the opening reception on January 28, 2012, from 6 to 8 pm at the Johns Creek Arts Center. It is located at 6290 Abbotts Bridge Rd, Bldg. 700, Johns Creek, GA 30097. Admission is free and the center is open Monday – Friday, 9 am – 5 pm.
